II.A. District Retreat Recap

SB1

A couple of the biggest changes were the SBDM's ability to select the principal and make curriculum decisions.

This year we will be pushing a more rigorous curriculum. Curriculum expectations were eased quite a bit during covid pandemic.

EDGE Program – our goal is to keep expanding this program's opportunities and measuring growth.

Communication

Our avenues of communication are as follows:

- High School Newsletter and Elementary Tiger Talk- weekly, monthly, and annual information, counselors' corner, calendars, recognitions, and news. This is where you should look to find all the information.
- Infinite Campus - all factual information and newsletters school or district formal communications.
 - Grade level communication
 - Your child's grades
 - Your child's schedule
 - Add money to cafe account
 - Pay your school fees
- Social Media - recognitions and celebrations only (sometimes a snow day or any communication that needs to be "blasted" on all platforms)
 - Discussion on the pros and cons of the usage of social media to relay information
- Website - resources such as SBDM Council information, forms, scheduling, district calendar, lunch menu, etc.
- We are planning to update our website in 2023.

II.A.3. Capital Campaign - the campaign has officially started. This money will be used for equipment and athletic equipment that cannot be bought with bond money. In addition, we cannot use capital campaign money on "brick and mortar"

II.B. Work of Schools for 2022-2023

- Discussed the continual implementation of the 5 District Goals (Personalized learning, Wellness, Community Engagement, Leadership, Culture)
- Also discussed was our staff's cohort work, the AP and ACT information and the ongoing development of the seminar classes for all grade levels.
