Justin Kaiser, Sarah Schobel, Michael Brinkman, Lisa Sletto, Rhonda Shriver, Deborah Haggard, Dawn Norris,, Jenny Jones, Josh Bates, and Tracy Kaake.

Good News Report

- KUNA, Bowling, Pi Day, AP Saturday, Calc wedding, Spring Sports, Musical, Archery, Internship/YouScience, Golden Apple - Elsheika Thompson, Academic All Star - Katherine Taylor

Old Business

- No old business this month.

New Business:

- The committee reviewed SB 128 and considerations/logistics for students who are interested in this option.
- Extracurricular sponsors are filling out a survey about their club for a stipend report.
- Leading to Spring Break, please be diligent with attendance and supervision.
- We have preliminary numbers for schedules next year but have to see how SB 128 possibly affects that. We will be able to give more details in May after we see how many students may take the repeat year option.
- Be sure to get your peer observations completed by April 30th.
- New desks are in this week for where they are needed to get to the end of the year. Then next year they will be collected for one classroom.
- Prom is April 30th and we will be asking for chaperones.
- Committee went over spring testing.
- Math department is still looking at potential new programs.
- We will have a summer math session for tutoring in 6th, 7th, and 8th. These are students who really need extra intervention.
- The committee reviewed the calendar for the rest of the school year.
- Mr. Kaiser shared the spreadsheets for departments to plan for next year including teacher supplies, annual purchases, cleaning supplies, and the purchasing cycle.

Adjournment:

- The meeting was adjourned at 4:00 pm.
