- III. Public Comment: Stephanie Wessel (observing)

- IV. School Improvement Planning:
  - a. Virtual Option Updates – 26 in Virtual Pearson Program, we have two teachers working with those families and reviewing assignments and participation. We would anticipate some families moving to this if we go to 100%.
  - b. 5-Day Option Updates – program has lots of hands on deck, going well and providing a needed service for our families.
  - c. CSIP/3-Year/School Profile Report – councils 1st read, documents located in the SBDM shared drive, council will vote in November, if corrections are needed those will be made and submitted in December. Several items in the CSIP changed due to the change in our schedule (testing cancelled, NTI schedule, hybrid in-person learning). District Parent Advisory Committee has happened in the past will roll off this year. Goals that were due by 2020 will change to 2021 based on the schedule changes due to COVID.
  - d. Writing Plan – Update –

- V. Student Achievement Report/Data
  - a. Brigance – this assessment is being given on an iPad it takes about 15 minutes per Kindergarten student.
  - b. MAP Update – this assessment is new this year and is given three times throughout the year, we are in our first assessment now, January, April for the remaining. Teachers and students are doing well and working hard. Feedback from students and teachers has been very positive with the flow and structure of the assessment. MAP results will give teachers more data on students and more resources for using the data.

- VI. Budget Report:
  - a. Expenses - we remain over budget based on needs of COVID

- VII. Bylaw or Policy Review/Readings/Adoption
  - a. District Updates – Working toward a 100% return, if and when that happens, we will be prepared as a District.
